

Propose Agenda for:
FAS Conference
Circles of Collaborative Care
Partnerships Promoting Healthy Families and Healthy Futures for Individuals
Affected with Fetal Alcohol Syndrome

October 20 – 22, 2003
Quinault Beach Resort
Ocean Shores, Washington

Day 1 – October 20, 2003

8:00am	Registration
8:30am	NPAIHB Project Overview
9:00am	Keynote address – Carolyn Hartness Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow
10:00am	Tribal Presentation of Findings and Ideas
12:30pm	Youth Group Presentation (Working Lunch)
1:30pm	Tribal Presentation of Findings and Ideas
4:00pm	Participatory discussion of day's presentation
5:00pm	Adjourn

Day 2 – October 21, 2003

8:30am	Keynote address – Robin LaDue FAS and Life in the Real World
9:30am	Tribal Presentation of Findings and Ideas
12noon	Youth Group Presentation (Working Lunch)
1:30pm	Tribal Presentation of Findings and Ideas
4:00pm	Participatory discussion of day's presentation
5:00pm	Adjourn

Day 3 – October 22, 2003

8:30am	Keynote address – Suzie Kuerschner Creating the Circles
9:30am	Tribal Presentation of Findings and Ideas
12noon	Youth Group Presentation (Working Lunch)
1:30pm	Tribal Presentation of Findings and Ideas
4:00pm	Participatory discussion of day's presentation
5:00pm	Adjourn

FAS Conference
Circles of Collaborative Care
Partnerships Promoting Healthy Families and Healthy Futures for Individuals
Affected with Fetal Alcohol Syndrome

October 20 – 22, 2003
Quinault Beach Resort
Ocean Shores, Washington

- I. Tribal Project Team Presentation by:
 - a. Confederated Tribes of Umatilla
 - b. Coquille Tribe
 - c. Muckleshoot Tribe
 - d. Port Gamble S' Klallam Tribe
 - e. Quileute Tribe
 - f. Shoshone Bannock Tribe

- II. Issues Explored
 - a. Current FAS perspectives
 - b. Community Driven Identification Diagnosis
 - c. Building Community FAS teams
 - d. Effective intervention from a developmental context
 - e. The I.E.P. as a roadmap
 - f. Secondary Characteristics and their Mental Health manifestation
 - g. Legal Issues and Corrections involvement
 - h. Youth perspectives
 - i. Moving through collective and individual grieve and denial